

Join the Cedar Crest College art department for a screening of Concrete, Steel & Paint, a documentary film that follows prison inmates and victims of crime as they work together to create a mural that serves as a means of healing and understanding.

CONCRETE STEEL & PAINT

A film about crime, restoration and healing.

October 25, 2011

7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Alumnae Hall auditorium

Free | Registration 610-740-3791

The film's directors, Cindy Burstein and Tony Heriza, and Cedar Crest art therapy and criminal justice faculty will answer questions immediately following the screening.

Funded by the cultural programs committee

CEDAR CREST
COLLEGE

100 College Drive
Allentown, PA 18104